

STREET GRACE™

Cheryl Deluca-Johnson
Special Projects

As a licensed professional counselor (LPC) and a non-profit leader, Cheryl has dedicated her career to serving vulnerable and marginalized communities, especially children and women who are at risk of or have experienced sexual exploitation.

She has a bachelor's degree in psychology from Mercer University and a master's degree in professional counseling from the University of Georgia. Cheryl is excited to work on special projects at Street Grace, an organization that she co-founded in 2008 to combat child trafficking through awareness, education, advocacy, and collaboration. Her focus is on the connection between foster care and trafficked children, including how we can prevent, intervene, and help them restore their lives.

Cheryl previously worked with Metro Atlanta Recovery Residences (MARR) to improve their women's program, World Hope International to assess the needs of survivors and refugees in Sri Lanka and Poland, the Community Foundation of Northeast GA as a board member, and Rainbow Village as a consultant and board trustee. Cheryl is excited to work under Bob's leadership and with the amazing Street Grace team.

About Street Grace:

Street Grace is a faith-based organization that utilizes evidence-based demand reduction strategies to eradicate the commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) through prevention, protection, policy, and pursuit.

CSEC is sexual activity with a child in exchange for something of value given to the child or a third person.
