

Monica Thompson, MPH
Care Coordinator

Monica, a native of Chattanooga, TN received her bachelor's degree in health science from Howard University and her master's degree in public health from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. As a Chattanooga native, giving back to the community in any way has always been a goal of hers. Monica has a passion for working with the youth and has developed a professional foundation and transferable skills needed to understand and work on a wide range of issues in a variety of fields that work to improve the lives of the youth.

Monica's career path includes program coordinator at Girl's Inc. of Chattanooga and public health educator at the Hamilton County Health Department. As a public health educator her interest in combating human trafficking has increased. She is now a care coordinator at Street Grace.

In this role, Monica hopes to contribute her knowledge and passions to improving the lives of those impacted by the commercial sexual exploitation of children.

Outside of work Monica enjoys doing art, exercising, and spending time with family, friends and with her dog.

About Street Grace:

Street Grace is a faith-based organization that utilizes evidence-based demand reduction strategies to eradicate the commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) through prevention, protection, policy, and pursuit.

CSEC is sexual activity with a child in exchange for something of value given to the child or a third person.
