He has written for a variety of publications including business journals and has been quoted by The Wall Street Journal and The Atlanta Business Chronicle. His work has been featured on hundreds of media outlets including the Washington Post and The New York Times. Rodgers has testified before congress and has been invited to the White House, on multiple occasions, to provide expertise on trafficking legislation and demand reduction strategies. Additionally, Rodgers is a Pastoral Sex Addiction Professional (PSAP®) candidate (June 2020) from the International Institute for Trauma and Addiction Professionals.

Rodgers has hosted "Thinking Out Loud," a weekly radio broadcast, and is the co-author of the devotional "God Is With Us". Additionally, he serves on numerous boards, is on the Business Advisory Council for Lee University, a graduate of Leadership Gwinnett and the founder of the Freedom Coalition, a collaborative initiative addressing global human trafficking.

About Street Grace:

Street Grace is a faith-based organization that utilizes evidence-based demand reduction strategies to eradicate the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC) through prevention, protection, policy and pursuit.

CSEC is sexual activity with a child in exchange for something of value given to the child or a third person.
