

STREET GRACE™

Faythe Kadona, M.S.
Subject Matter Expert

Faythe is a Subject Matter Expert in the fields of human trafficking, addiction, and domestic violence. She has a master's of administration of justice and security and keeps God at the center of her life. Faythe is currently working on her master's in marriage and family studies with the hopes to continue working with survivors and their families.

Faythe is one of the founding members of the Street Grace Survivor Advisory Council and has served for the last six years on the council.

Certified in trauma informed care for youth and adults, Faythe is also a certified facilitator with Ending the Game and is the first woman in Georgia to be a licensed contract facilitator with TYRO Mom's Leadership program, when helps women overcome the effects of incarceration and integrate back into their family units. Faythe has created curriculum and taught women in a residential treatment facility how to overcome trafficking and addiction. Before coming to Street Grace, Faythe was a case manager, intake coordinator, and residential support assistant for women at House of Cherith.

Faythe has also helped create and establish a Survivor Mentor Program with Street Grace and H.O.P.E. Court of Chatham County, GA. As the coordinator, she connected youth survivors in the program with adult survivor mentors, while also mentoring several of the youth.

Faythe has helped draft key legislation in Georgia, along with the Survivor Advisory Council to assist survivors in getting their records vacated or restricted which passed under SB435 in 2019. She was also instrumental in the name change bill which passed under SB34 in 2021 so that survivors can now get their names changed under seal instead of publicly.

Faythe has also advised on other key legislative initiatives and bills in Georgia during the past several years.

Faythe has volunteered with Atlanta Redemption Ink (ARI) by assisting survivors to their tattoo appointments so that their trafficking brands could be covered.

STREET GRACE™

Faythe's greatest joy is her children, writing, and creating. She also is passionate about helping others overcome adverse circumstances by relying on Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit to lead the way.

About Street Grace:

Street Grace is a faith-based organization that utilizes evidence-based demand reduction strategies to eradicate the commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) through prevention, protection, policy, and pursuit.

CSEC is sexual activity with a child in exchange for something of value given to the child or a third person.
